Woolen Cloths, Dimities, Mullinets, Blackets, Printed Calicoes, Mullin, Handkerchiefs, Corduroys, Silk Bonnets, Velveteens, Shawls, Furbies, Pins and Needles, Jeans and Jeanettes, Ivory Combs, Buttons & Buttons, Gold-liners & Files, Irish Linens, Best Durham Mustard in bottles and casks, Small Looking Glasses in gilt frames, Small Engravings in handsome frames, Thermometers, Printed Books, &c. &c.
Lexington, 25th August, 1796.

This is to inform my friends, and the public in general, that I have just opened

A STORE,

In Lexington, where I formerly kept Saddle's shop, at the corner of Main and Croft Street—Consisting of A handsome assortment of Dry Goods, and Hard Ware—amongst which are a few sets of Saddle's and Shoe-maker's tools complete. A most elegant assortment of Milliner's work, such as Bonnets, Hats, Caps, Featherers, and a number of other handsome pieces of Ornament for ladies. Together with a few lady's Watch Chains, and Gold Ear Rings; all of the newest fashion.

A large and general assortment of MEDICINE, Amongst which is the following Patent Medicine, (to wit) Caffor, Sweet, and British oil.
Gifford's cordial.
Bismarck's drops.
Turkish's balsam of life.
And other's pills.

Malder Alum, Vining, Ink-Powder, & a quantity of excellent Spices; together with a number of other articles too tedious to mention. All of which will be disposed of at wholesale or retail, by the public's most obedient humble servant.

Aug. 25. BENJ. N. COX.
I have some valuable tracts of Land in different parts of the State; as well as upwards of one hundred thousand acres in the great and of Tennessee, which is well known to be of the first quality. Any gentleman inclined to purchase, may be furnished on the most reasonable terms, and the titles indisputable; which may be seen, by applying to a notary.

A. & J. W. HUNT,
WILL PURCHASE TOBACCO
Of the present year's growth, at their houses in Lexington, Danville and Frankfort.

STOLEN

FROM the subscriber, living one mile below Abingdon, in Washington county Virginia, a large bay Horse, about fifteen hands high or upwards, four years old last spring, remarkably round bodied, trot and paces, has been worked constantly this summer, and rides very cleanly, has a small star and has been branded on the near jaw with something like I, but is not very perceivable, he is out of a Felo horse, and thews the marks of that breed, and is sleepy eyed, his mane and tail black, swish tail, light mane. I was taken about the night of the 25th of this instant. Any person securing the horse and thief to that he may be brought to justice, shall have thirty dollars reward, or for the horse fifteen dollars and reasonable charges, paid by me.

Annex 31. ROBERT CRAIG.

Whereby I have a full power from taking an assignment on a bond or an agreement entered into on the fifth day of January 1796, between Robert Pogue of the county of Madison, and the subscribers; for we do not intend to comply with that agreement, as we consider ourselves to be defrauded.

WILLIAM DANIEL,

WILLIAM STEELE

EXTRACTS FROM THE COURIER DU CORPS DU LEGISLATIF, 28TH MAY.

Military situation of the Republic, 1806.
 The pen can scarce follow the impetuous march of the general, who in less than fifteen days hath conquered the whole North of Italy, hath vanquished one of the most famous generals, and hath struck one of those masterly strokes which hath changed the political face of Europe. Already the neighboring powers have purchased by submission and by military contributions, the preservation of their estates; the others press forward, not merely to acknowledge the Republic, but to sue for its friendship. The courts of Naples and of Rome began to feel their most important interests. Tuscany congratulates itself upon its neutrality: Venice drives from its territories the emigrants, together with their chief, and refuses an asylum to Beaulieu and his vanquished army. The explosion of this thunderbolt hath rebounded on the banks of the Rhine: it hath enflamed our armies with emulation, and hath filled our enemies with consternation. The court of Vienna, for not knowing how to renounce the possession of four ungrateful and rebellious provinces in the North, now beholds the most rich and most beautiful part of all its estates escaping from it in the South. Shaken by the same blow, England in vain attempts to avenge itself of our successes by new perfidies.
 Thus France, which they would efface from the map of Europe, has become now the most distinguished part of it. That Republic, which they thought to have divided and shared, now limits the estates of its neighbors. Its immense resources, doubled by the spirit of liberty, which resistance has exalted by the habit of conquests to which they have forced it, by the force of a constitutional government, which they have strengthened by attempting to overturn, now assure to it an influence as extensive as splendid. While we are yet wondering at the inconceivable rapidity with which the Sardinian and Austrian armies have been overthrown by the first shock of our warriors, armies, whose union formed a mass so formidable for its numbers, but appeared weak to those who contemplated the superiority of freemen over slaves! While we are yet admiring the skill with which they were separated from each other, by the manoeuvres of our generals, and successively destroyed; while these splendid scenes are yet before your eyes, should they not inspire us with hopes that our numerous and warlike armies on the Rhine will soon satisfy that impatient desire of victory, which a noble emulation hath excited in the breasts of those heroes who compose them and that by a heroism equal to that of their brothers in Italy, they will shortly subjugate a river, yet famous for the battles by which the ancient Gauls rendered its banks illustrious.

LONDON, May 24.

Peace is said by the Parisian Journals, to be negotiating in favor of all the states of Italy excepting those belonging to the House of Austria. It appears that even the Pope will not be excepted.
 The treaty with the King of Naples is already advanced. One of his agents is arrived at Paris, to treat with the Directory.
 It is thought likewise that Negotiations are opened or ready to be opened with the house of Austria.
 When the treaty concluded with the King of Sardinia was submitted to the Council of Five Hundred some of the members remarked, that the terms were too degrading for a conquered Prince who submitted to the terms imposed on him who was certainly entitled to that respect which is ever due to misfortune.

In the fitting of the 9th inst. a report of the celebrated Abbe Seynewas read to the Council, containing the strongest threats against England, and exhorting the government to turn the whole force of the Republic and to direct the whole weight of their vengeance against her.

The daily publication of a new paper is not equal to the task of recorded the rapidity of French conquests. We scarcely put forth our journal containing the account of some General routed or kingdom overthrown, but we are overtaken by some new victory, more astonishing and more splendid than its predecessors! Thus the narrative of the wonderful successes which we gave in yesterday's paper, is to be followed by the recital of a more brilliant and decisive achievement which came to our hand last night. All the Paris papers of the 20th, and the L.E. claim of the 21st inst. arrived yesterday the 21st.
 They contain the letters from Buonaparte and Salicetti of the most memorable battle which has happened during the whole of this short and unparalleled campaign—the most memorable not only for the undaunted bravery with which it was fought but for its consequences. It has concluded their brilliant campaign. It has opened to them all Italy, & we have no doubt but that before this time we have received the homage of every one of its Princes, and have degraded the terms upon which they will permit them to keep their territories.
 —and even in this, governments which call themselves regular ought to blush!—for if we may judge from the plunder of Poland and its exiled sovereign, their only rule of conduct in victory is to divide the spoil. The letters of Buonaparte and Salicetti will best describe the wonderful effects of the enthusiasm which has led on the armies of France, and which has made the battle of the bridge of Lodi one of the most shining in modern times. It cannot be denied, but that where men fight for Liberty, there is an ardour totally unknown to the mere obedience of discipline. It is not the French but the charm of Liberty, that has thus in a single month subdued all Italy, and the torrent will be irresistible if the infantry of Corsica and Cabinets still opposes itself to her peace establishment in France.
 Good God, what an epoch is this present! On the very brink of being defeated by all our Allies, and standing alone the brunt of the battle which the French accuse us of having provoked, the people of England are banded only in listening to the treacherous flatteries of those who for three years have refused even to enquire into the principles or the conduct of the war in which we are involved! Can the ruin of a people be remote, who in such a moment elect the valets of Lords or the sycophants of Ministers to be their representatives in the Senate?
 Let us hope that they will rouse themselves at length into exertion.

Lexington, September 10.

We are informed that on the night of Wednesday last, a company of men attempted to break into the house of — Frontman tavernkeeper in Stanford (at Lincoln court house,) and were fired on by the owner of the house, one of them killed on the spot, and another wounded, supposed to be mortal.

FRENCH VICTORY ON THE RHINE.

Received at Salem from Bourdeaux where it was published in a handwritten

FROM PARIS, June 7.

Duchatel, representative of the people, to citizen Duplanier president of the administration in the Gironde departement.

As a poet, going from Bourdeaux with dispatches, has offered his services, I seize with joy this opportunity to inform you of the good news which will soon spread far and wide among our good citizens. I promised you in my last letter, the particular events in Italy. The paper to which I refer you, will give you ample satisfaction. It is not only in Italy that the signalize their courage; they have gathered laurels upon the borders of the Rhine; they have gathered them at their first steps. Gen Jourdan, the worthy Marshal of Buonaparte defended the Duke of Wirtemberg. Accept the substance of a communication from the Directory, addressed to us this day upon this occasion:

"After our success in Italy, we expected the Emperor would sue for peace.—We are undeceived. Austria has broken the truce that the French had made for the good of humanity. But the army of the sambre and the Meuse has undertaken to make them repent of it. On the 30th of May the republican army took many advantageous positions on the banks of the Hunsruck. On the 31st the enemy attempted in vain to dislodge them.
 The divisions of Generals Marceau & Championnet contributed greatly to the success of our arms. On the same evening the armed force commanded by Gen. Kleber, and supported by other divisions, passed the Sieg and attacked the enemy, who lost 2400 men of which 1000 are prisoners and a whole staff of officers. The army pursued the enemy with their bayonets, and drew off fresh victories. The Directory has promised to publish the circumstances of this memorable affair in the official journal.

We enjoy a victory of a different kind and it is over some late attempts of infamous speculators, in concert with England, to destroy the credit of our paper money.
 These wretches are as completely defeated as the Austrians and despair of any future success. The mandates, which their infamous business had depreciated to 60 per cent, have risen suddenly, and are at this moment up to 85, and things have a most favorable aspect.—I believe a body is firmly determined to support the law of the 16th February.—You will find proofs of it in what I subjoin. I cannot describe the joy of all friends of the country. What a joyful fight!
 Each congratulating his friend, and continuing to repeat, "We shall at last conquer all our enemies the speculators as well as the lat-elites of despots.

BLESSED EFFECTS OF JAY'S TREATY.

MR. BRADFORD.

You having been an early adventurer in Kentucky, and thereby had an opportunity of knowing something of the origin of the greater part of all claims to lands in this state, I must beg the favor of you to inform me (if in your power) on what right that claim called the Ohio Company's Grant is founded.—The embarrassed situation in which at least 6000 families will be placed, provided that grant should be established, is truly alarming; and notwithstanding there are very few, who appear to believe the claim a good one, yet many discover great anxiety, when discoursing on the subject. Quo threats and imprecations throw out against the company and the agents and against Jay's treat-and its abettors, plainly evince disposition not to submit to the claim at any rate.

If you are not in possession of the information required, please to inscribe the above in your paper; and any gentleman who is, will please to make it public through the same channel, and thereby receive the thanks of a very great number of the citizens of Bourbon county.

NOTICE, that by virtue of an order of the county court of Bourbon, and in pursuance of an act of the general assembly entitled "an act to ascertain the boundaries of land and for other purposes," I shall attend with the commissioners, on the last day of September next, if fair, if not, the next fair day, (at an improvement made by John Field, in the year 1776, about 3 1/4 of a mile from the mouth of the rocky fork fork, waters of Licking, in the preemption of one thousand acres, the legal title of which is now vested in me,) in order to take the depositions of sundry witnesses to perpetuate their testimony respecting the said improvement, and to do such other acts as may be thought necessary, and in conformity to the said act of assembly.

JOHN ROBERTS.
August 27, 1796.

NOTICE.

IS hereby given to all whom it may concern, that on the 15th of September next, I shall attend at the mouth of Linn Camp creek, a branch of Green river, with certain commissioners appointed by the county court of Hardin, agreeably to the act of assembly, entitled "an act to ascertain the boundaries of land, and for other purposes," then and there to perpetuate the testimony of certain witnesses relative to the beginning and other calls in an entry of 1000 acres made in the name of Reuben Triplett, in the year, 1780, alleged by said Triplett to me; then and there to do such other acts and things as the said commissioners by the said act, are authorized and required to do. Also 1000 acres in the name of Simon Triplett, and 1000 acres in the name of Joseph Butler, on the above mentioned day and place.

JAMES PHILLIPS.
August 31, 1796.

TAKE NOTICE—that agreeable to an order of the county court of Malon, I shall attend with the commissioners, on Friday the twenty-third day of September next, and continue the next day if the business is not sooner completed, at a blue bank and fogartree, on the North fork of Licking, near the mouth of a small branch about three miles above Mr. David Harts entry of 1000, acres then and there to perpetuate their testimony, concerning the beginning of a thousand acre survey, patented to Samuel Brockman sen. and to do such other acts as may appear necessary and agreeable to law.

DILLARD COLLINS, for the administrators of S.M. BROCKMAN dec.
August 25, 1796.

We hereby give notice,—that agreeably to an order of the county court of Malon county, we shall, on the Wednesday next succeeding the third Tuesday in September next, proceed to take depositions to establish the improvement and boundaries of our preemption on Mill creek adjoining John Vance's preemption in the county aforesaid; & that the depositions will be taken at the place of our improvement.

FERIS, L.L. & HAWKINS.
August 25, 1796.

WHEREAS Foret Webb, on the ninth day of June, 1793, entered 500 acres upon a treasury warrant, on a branch of a creek running into Licking, known by the name of Eliza creek, including a cabin and improvement, at a lick, about twelve miles nearly from each county, from the Upper Blue Licks, on the east side of said branch, and on both sides for country. Being desirous to perpetuate testimony to establish the calls in the said warrant, I have obtained from the court of this county, an order appointing commissioners to meet in pursuance of an act of assembly, entitled "An act to ascertain the boundaries of land, and for other purposes." Notice is hereby given, that the commissioners will meet at the mouth of John Downing, on said land, on the nineteenth of September next, and from thence proceed to the places specially called for in said entry, for the purpose aforesaid and such of them as law directs. They will sit from day to day, until the business is completed.

August 25, 1796. FOREST WEBB.

NOTICE.

IS hereby given, that on the 28th of October next, I shall attend with the commissioners, appointed by the county court of Harrison, in pursuance of an act of the assembly of Kentucky entitled, "an act to ascertain the boundaries of lands and for other purposes," at col. Bowman's encampment on a well fork of Licking, they being two calls of my entry of 1000 acres, made in 1780, May 17, by virtue of a treasury warrant, &c. then and there to perpetuate the testimony of sundry witnesses, in order to establish said encampment, and to do such things as shall be deemed necessary and according to law.

JOSEPH CRAIG.

ALL concerned take notice—that certain commissioners appointed by the county court of Scott, will meet at James Forster's near James Forster's camp, on Wednesday, the 28th of September next, in order to take the deposition of witnesses and perpetuate their testimony respecting said James Forster's camp and improvement, as shall be deemed necessary and agreeably to law.

Stop Thief.

To all Sheriffs, Constables &c. within the Commonwealth of Kentucky:

WHEREAS complaint is this day made to me by James Roberts (upon oath) keeper of the public jail, for Franklin District, that James Beecraft, who was committed to said jail for horse stealing, from the county of Bourbon, on the night of the 25th instant, broke jail, and is now going at large.—I therefore in the name of the commonwealth, to require you and every of you in your respective counties, towns and precincts, to make diligent search by way of hue and cry, for the said James Beecraft; him having found, to seize and take, and safely convey, or cause to be conveyed to the public jail, there to be kept until he shall be thence discharged by due course of law. Given under my hand and seal, this 29th day of August 1796.

ISAAC E. GAND. [SEAL.]
Description.

Beecraft, is about five feet ten inches high, dark complexion, short black hair, chop shouldered, born in the State of Maryland, has for some time been an inhabitant of Bourbon county.

LOPED from my bed and board, on the 21st instant, my wife Molly Perry—Persons are therefore forewarned from crediting her on any account, as I am determined to pay no debts of her contracting after this date. I also caution all persons from harboring or in any wise concealing my said wife, as they shall answer it at their peril.

August 31, 1796. BENJAMIN PERRY.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a petition will be presented to the ensuing General assembly, to void the act of the General assembly, to a tract of land, lying in the county of Madison, entered and surveyed in the name of William Wallace, & containing 1153 acres.

Also a petition for a law vesting in certain persons, (in trust,) power to sell all lands belonging to the estate of Maurice Nagle deceased, for the benefit of his creditors; a bill for which purpose, passed the lower house at their last session, but was rejected in the senate.

August 25th 1796.

The Subscribers

REQUEST all persons indebted to them, by notes, bonds, or book accounts, to come forward and discharge their respective balances on or before the first day of September next. ALL PERSONS INDEBTED to the late partnership of IRWIN & BRAYSON, are requested to pay their accounts or notes to THOMAS IRWIN or JOHN A. SMITH, who only can give discharges.—One month's indulgence will be given and no longer.

Lexington, 27th May, 1796.

Twenty Dollars reward.

RUN away from the subscriber's plantation in Bull's lot, in March last, a Negro Boy, about seventeen or eighteen years old, of a slender make, but remarkable large feet, on one of his hands is a scar caused by a burn, he is of a yellow complexion, his name is Britain, but originally called Ned, his nails I have reason to believe are changed. The said boy was some weeks past taken up by a gentleman on the north side of the Ohio river, and made his escape within five miles of my house. Any person who will deliver said negro to me, shall receive the above reward, or have him appraised so that I get him again, shall receive ten dollars, and all reasonable charges.

RO. CLARK, jun.
Clarke county, May 24, 1796.

DESERVED, from my detachment, this morning, James Dunton, and Samuel Saunders, both private soldiers in the second line-regiment. Dunton is a stout five feet ten inches high, blue eyes, light hair, and well proportioned; took with him some part of his uniform clothing. Saunders is about five feet eight inches high, dark eyes and hair, and dark complexion, rather slender build, took with him a light infantry cap, and some uniform clothing. The above reward will be given for delivering them to any officer of the legion, or securing them in any jail in the United States, and all reasonable expenses paid, or TEN DOLLARS if secured. It is highly probable they will make for the Kingdom of Ohio, or the mouth of Kentucky, where they were seen early in the morning making cowards.

B. GAINES, Capt. U. S. L.
Greenville, June 22, 1796.

For Sale.

SIX THOUSAND ACRES OF LAND.

ENTERED for maj. John Mobley, deceased, and patented in the name of Littleberry Mobley, 5240 at law of said John Mobley, lying in Morgan Licking, being part of ten thousand acres, beginning at one hundred poles above the mouth of a creek that runs into main Licking on the north side, about four miles below the fourth fork of Licking, and extending down Licking ten miles;—it is necessary to defer the land, as the purchaser will be disposed to make the necessary enquiries previous to his making any proposals.—The title is supported by those who have carefully examined it to be unquestionable.—Upon paying part of the purchase money, a reasonable credit will be given for the balance.

James Brown, Atty. in fact For Littleberry Mobley, jun.
Lexington, June 13, 1796.
N. B. I will also dispose of any other Lands in Kentucky claimed by said Mobley.

CASH FOR HIDES.

I WILL give Cash for Hides at my Tannery, nearly opposite Col. Patterson's, on Water street in Lexington—where I will also take hides to tan on the flures.

SEPT. 1. JACOB KISS.

AS the Scheme of a lottery in the town of Paris and county of Bourbon, for raising the sum of 2501 dollars for opening the navigation of the fourth fork of Licking river, published in the Kentucky Gazette, would subject the Managers to be accountable for one third of the tickets which might be in their hands at the commencement of the drawing, agreeable to the scheme published—The Managers have therefore resolved, that the drawing of said lottery shall not commence until the whole of the tickets can be disposed of.

By order of the Board.
AMOS EDWARDS, C. B.
Bourbon, August 6, 1796.
